

Boundary Water Packing List for Scouts

Keep in mind what we list needs to fit into one dry bag slightly less than the size and width of two paper bags stacked on each other. We suggest you take two complete sets of clothing on your canoe trip. Wear one and pack one:

- 2 Pair wicking Pants (cargo with zipper off leggings - not jeans, they do not dry well)
- 2 Short sleeve shirts (wicking type)
- 1 Long sleeve shirts (wicking or dries fast)(optional)
- 2+ Set of underwear
- 3+ Pair of socks - not cotton
- Waterproof water shoes close toed shoes with good soles for portages
- Lightweight shoes (for around camp)
- Fleece jacket or Wool sweater
- Hat
- Swimming suit
- sleeping bag
- sleeping mat
- Rain Gear
- Bowl & Spoon
- Towel & wash cloth
- Handkerchief
- Toiletries (lip balm, environment safe soap, toothpaste, floss, brush, Note: bring minis)
- Toilet paper
- Sunglasses with strap
- Gloves for canoeing
- Compass
- small towel for drying off (ie. Shamwa)
- Flashlight (head or hat one & spare batteries)
- Fishing gear & tackle – suggest sharing two or three for entire crew
- Insect repellent
- Sun block
- Knife
- 2 Water Bottles (32oz Nalgene type is best)
- Life Jacket
- Seat cushion (lightweight one works fine)
- Camera
- Fanny Pack (Not backpacks, there is enough to carry per portage)
- Hat/cap for sleeping (if going during colder weather)

Important: One complete set of clothes (including a towel) in a separate bag or backpack to change into for the ride home – after a shower.
